Quarterly meeting at the M. E. Church next Sabbath.

Ed. Longwell is spending a few weeks with friends in Detroit.

Mrs. Eva Kelley, of Cadillac, is making a short visit at her father's.

Mrs. Kittie Ellwood, of Pullman, Ill., is visiting friends here for a short time.

Will Mosier is taking a commercial course at Parsons' Business College, Kalamazoo.

We spent a pleasant hour, on Monday last, in the office of the Niles Republican.

They are wrestling with the measles in the family of our esteemed friend, John C. Mc-Lain.

'Cate Downing makes himself conspicuous, beating the city ladies around. He is getting young again.

B. F. Stearns has returned from Dakota, and his smiling countenance is again to be seen at the Model Store.

J. B. Smith and wife, of Bangor, are coming back to town. The NORTHERNER and a great many others are glad to hear it.

Owing to a rush of work at the Northerner office, Bert Cole will be found there until he enters upon his new field of labor.

S. J. Wilcox, formerly of Paw Paw, and recently of Altona, Mich., has removed to Kalamazoo, and is traveling with a patent fire escape.

Bert Cole, late of the Courier office, goes to Grand Rapids next week, to take charge of an office there, as foreman. Bert knows just how to do it.

Dr. C. W. Ward has opened business at 103 Bond St., Kalamazoo. The Dr. is a good dentist, and we expect he will meet an abundant success.

There will be services, morning and evening next Sabbath, in the basement of the First Baptist church. The upper room will not be ready for two or three weeks.

Extra meetings are to be held at the M. E.
Church each evening for the next ten days.
The Presiding Elder, Rev. I. Taylor, will be present this week, and Rev. Mrs. S. M. Henry, of Evanston, Ill., next week.

Rev. W. C. Burns returned from Detroit Wednesday, where he has been spending a few days visiting friends and attending the Quarterly Session of the State Executive Committee of Y. M. C. A.

We had the pleasure of calling on Mrs.
Mary Braddock, at Bay City, last Friday.
We found her father, S. H. Blackman, and her sister Mattie, there. They were all well and appeared to be happy.

Married, Feb. 6th, 1883, by Wm. Mason, Justice of the Peace, Wm. J. Brace and Oris O. Judson, both of Antwerp. Also, by the same, Feb. 23d, 1883, Geo. W. Crawford and Gertrude M. Cunningham, both of Paw Paw.

There is to be a sheet and pillow-case dance at the Opera House, March 9th, by members of the Dancing School. Only those invited by members of the school are expected to take part. Dancing bill, $1.00.
Spectators 15 cents.

We looked in upon the maskers last Tuesday evening, and found them a jolly crowd, among whom were some very picturesque costumes. The galleries were filled with spectators who seemed greatly to enjoy the kaleidoscopic view.

Read "Jay's" new "ad." this week, if you want to know the plan he has adopted, to determine who takes the new sewing machine. It will be necessary for the party holding the lucky number to be on hand and take away the prize.

The many friends of W. W. Hodge, of Geneva, will be sorry to learn that he has been very ill with typhoid fever, which had a run of 25 days before it was broken, leaving him very weak. He has been confined to his bed six weeks, but at latest advices, was slowly recovering.

There will be a caucus of the Republican electors of the village of Paw Paw, at the Court House, on Saturday evening next, at half past seven o'clock, for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for village officers, to be voted for on Monday next.

By order of Committee.

To the person wishing to know about the Mecklenburg Declaration, we will say that it was made in May, 1775, when a band of patriots met at Charlotte, Mecklenburg Co., North Carolina, and declared themselves independent of the British King and Parliament, thus anticipating the real Declaration of Independence in 1776.

Mr. Olin Williams and wife, formerly Mrs.
M. R. Noyes, were agreeably surprised on the evening of the 23d, by a number of their neighbors who came with well filled baskets, containing a variety of articles for the satisfaction of the inner man. An exceedingly happy time was had. May they enjoy many pleasant years of life together.

There was an incipient conflagration in Judge Hilton's office, in the Court House, on Monday last. By some means fire had been communicated to the carpet, just behind the store, and a hole was burned through both carpet and floor before it was discovered.
No one was in the office at the time, and had not the Judge's brother happened in, in time to extinguish it, there might have been a serious fire.

The Republican county convention held at Lawrence, on Friday last, was organized by the election of B. F. Heckert as Chairman, and C. A. Harrison as Secretary. The following gentlemen were elected as delegates to the State convention, viz: C. J. Monroe, R. L. Warren, H. H. Howard, O. W. Rowland, O. N. Hilton, James Monroe, A. Chapman, Charles Duncombe, G. W. Lawton, A.
B. Copley, David Anderson, H. S. Richards, and A. N. Brown.

The lecture on the "Sham Family" was listened to by a well filled house. Mr. Ambrose touched upon the various inconsistencies of humanity, moral, social, and political, —especially the latter. He is a strong advocate of Woman's Suffrage, Free Trade, and Prohibition, and one of the shams to which he called attention, was the fact that, because we make whiskey by law, sell it by law, and drink it by law, we consider ourselves a very law abiding people. Indeed, he illustrated the fact that there is a "sham" in all trades but our own.

While we were at the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, in Flint, we renewed our acquaintance with our old friends, George Raab and wife, formerly of Lawrence. Geo. is in the grocery and provision trade.

We think the young and zealous editor of the Lawrence Times must have been a little off his base, in criticizing Mr. Cash, and stating that he had bought his wood since January 1st, instead of having it cut.
Mr. Cash says he has not bought a stick of wood since he has been on the County farm, and still has an abundance on hand.

The annual session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., held at Flint, which we attended as a delegate, was a very pleasant, harmonious gathering. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: G. M. Harrison Soule of Jackson; D. G. M., Lawrence N. Burke of Kalamazoo; G. S., E. H. Whitney of Lansing; G. T., B. D. Pritchard of Allegan; G. W., B. F. Rounds of Benton Harbor.

Married, in Bangor village, Thursday, Feb.
22, 1883, by Rev. A. B. Cochran, Mr. A. H.
Bennett and Miss Mella Remington, both of this village. Prof. Bennett is serving his second year as Principal of our village school, and Miss Mella is the adopted daughter of Mark Remington, and is a young lady of refinement, and of moral and intellectual worth.
We wish them a long, happy and prosperous voyage on the sea of life.—Bangor Reflector.

Miss Mella is one of the many pupils in whom we shall always retain a deep interest, and heartily echo the good wishes uttered by Brother Phillips.

On Monday evening next Prof. Joseph Lewis and wife will present to our citizens, the Military Comedy of "The Patriot Sons." Prof.
Lewis will take the part of Barney O'Toole, in which he is simply immense. The Prof. will be assisted by the members of Ellsworth and Brohead Posts of the Grand Army. The proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of a new flag for Brohead Post. Let every member and all citizens who would like to help the boys procure a new flag, lend a helping hand. The play will be one of the very best we have had during the season. Admission 25 cts. Reserved seats at Chappell's 35 cts.
